

TEXAS ALLIANCE OF GROUNDWATER DISTRICTS BYLAWS
Amended and Approved –June 26, 2012

Article 1.0: NAME

The name of this association shall be “Texas Alliance of Groundwater Districts” (TAGD). All references herein to “the (or, this) Alliance or Association” refer to the Texas Alliance of Groundwater Districts.

Article 2.0: PURPOSE

The Texas Alliance of Groundwater Districts is a non-profit organization established to provide groundwater conservation districts the opportunity to exchange ideas and develop or influence programs for the management, conservation, protection, and development of groundwater within Texas. In furtherance of our purpose the Alliance shall endeavor:

- A. To provide to its members information, ideas, practices, and programs which will conserve and protect the groundwater resources of the State;
- B. To exchange information between member districts and associate members concerning rules, procedures, programs, practices, and other duties involved in the operation of a groundwater conservation district;
- C. To review and analyze methods and techniques employed by members and their associates in conducting studies and research on management of groundwater, and in designing and obtaining solutions to problems associated therewith;
- D. To provide resource information to State and Federal Legislators and agencies concerning legislation and policies which involve groundwater; and
- E. To evaluate activities, policies and plans of governmental bodies and other organizations and associations as they relate to groundwater and to provide the information to all member districts.

Article 3.0: OFFICES AND RECORDS

- A. The principal office of the Alliance, with all records stored electronically, will be located at the office of the Executive Director. If the position of Executive Director is vacant, the principal office of the Alliance will be located at the office of the President. Secondary offices will be located at each of the other officers' Member District Offices.
- B. Each officer of the Alliance shall maintain in his/her Member District office all records of the Alliance, which shall include but is not limited to records, correspondence and other documents, regarding the activities associated with the office they hold in the Alliance. The Secretary of the Alliance or his/her designee shall notify the Secretary of State's office at the beginning of each fiscal year and furnish a list of the names and addresses of each of the officers of the Alliance.

Article 4.0: MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Alliance shall be either District or Associate.

- A. District Membership is limited to Groundwater Conservation Districts and those other political subdivisions of the State of Texas that have specific legal authority to regulate the spacing of water wells, the production from water wells, or both, in order to provide for the conservation, preservation, protection, recharging, and prevention of waste of groundwater, and of groundwater reservoirs or their subdivisions, and to control subsidence caused by the withdrawal of water from those groundwater reservoirs or their subdivisions, consistent with the objectives of Section 59, Article XVI, Texas Constitution except for those political subdivisions of the State of Texas that provide retail water services. Once a District is admitted as a Member, that District retains the rights of a voting member of the Alliance as long as membership in the Alliance is maintained.
- B. District Membership Application and Action by the Alliance:
 1. Qualifying entities under Article 4.0 (A) requesting membership in the Alliance shall complete and submit to the Secretary a membership application form and a copy of the enabling legislation or other documentation of creation.
 2. The application for district membership shall be reviewed by the Secretary and Executive Director and submitted, with any applicable comments, to the Executive Committee for consideration and approval or disapproval. District membership approval shall require a vote for approval by two-thirds of the members or designated alternates of the Executive Committee.
 3. The actions of the Executive Committee may be taken at a committee meeting, by a conference call of the committee members or by e-mails exchanged between the committee members. The action shall normally be completed within 30 days of receipt of a completed application by the Secretary.
 4. An application for district membership acted on favorably by the Executive Committee entitles the district to a district membership in accordance with these bylaws.
 5. An application for district membership acted upon unfavorably by the Executive Committee shall be returned to the applicant with a cover letter from the Alliance President stating the reason or reasons for the unfavorable action by the Alliance.
- C. District Membership shall be one of the following:
 1. Voting member. A member district that has paid their appropriate dues and registration fees to the Alliance in accordance with Article 5.0.
 2. Non-voting Member. A one year complimentary membership is limited to new districts and begins on the date of approval of the application for membership. Non-voting members may not hold an office in the Alliance.
 3. Suspended member. A member district that has been declared as non- operational by the state auditor under provisions of Section 36.302 Texas Water Code. A member district may remain active at their current membership level within the Alliance for up to one year after the designation by the state auditor. During this time, the membership of the Alliance may provide support to the suspended member in an effort to regain the operational status to the district. If the district has not been declared operational at the end of two years, the district is no longer eligible for membership in TAGD. In order to be reinstated as a member, the member must provide the Alliance with a letter showing that the district has been declared operational by the appropriate agency, and comply with Article 4.0, Section (B) and Section (C)(1). After the first year of designation as non-operational, the suspended member may not pay dues, is not a voting member, and may not hold a position on the Executive Committee in the Alliance.

D. Associate Membership

1. Associate membership in the Alliance shall be a non-voting membership and open to application by any person or entity.
2. Associate membership in the Alliance should be supportive of the Alliance and its goals.
3. Persons or entities requesting associate membership in the Alliance shall complete and submit to the Secretary an associate membership form. The application process shall be as follows:
 - a. The application for associate membership shall be reviewed by the Secretary and Executive Director and submitted, with any applicable comments, to the Executive Committee for consideration and approval or disapproval. Associate membership approval shall require a vote for approval by two-thirds of the members or designated alternates of the Executive Committee.
 - b. The actions of the Executive Committee may be taken at a committee meeting, by a conference call of the committee members or by e-mails exchanged between the committee members. The action shall normally be completed within 30 days of receipt of a completed application by the Secretary.
 - c. An application for associate membership acted on favorably by the Executive Committee entitles the applicant to an associate membership in accordance with these bylaws.
 - d. An application for associate membership acted upon unfavorably by the Executive Committee shall be returned to the applicant with a cover letter from the Alliance President stating the reason or reasons for the unfavorable action by the Alliance.
4. Associate members shall be allowed to participate in regular membership meetings, but may not vote on Alliance business. Associate members may be required to leave the meeting during closed sessions of membership meetings.
5. Associate members may be allowed to give presentations and distribute literature or information to the membership under the supervision of the Executive Director of the Alliance.
6. Representatives of federal, state and local agencies may attend regular membership meetings as non-voting attendees upon payment of the appropriate registration fees. Representatives of these agencies may be exempted from registration fees if they are invited to present part of the meeting program. These representatives may be required to leave the meeting during closed sessions of membership meetings.

Article 5.0: DUES AND FEES

The membership dues and fees of the Alliance shall be:

- A. Annual Dues.
 - 1. District Membership-Each district member of the Alliance shall be assessed annual dues based on the following criteria:
 - a. Voting Member: Full dues.

 - 1. Meeting room expense;
 - 2. Meals provided at meetings;
 - 3. Seminars hosted by the Alliance; and
 - 4. Other costs associated with Alliance functions.
- C. The dues and fees of the Alliance shall be set annually by the voting membership at a regular meeting of the Alliance. The agenda items shall be:
 - 1. to set the amount of meeting registration fees;
 - 2. to set the amount of annual district membership dues; and
 - 3. to set the amount of annual associate membership dues.
- D. Dues are assessed on an annual basis. They are due and payable on November 1 of each year.
 - 1. The Treasurer or his/her designee will mail, email, or fax dues statements to the membership by October 1st each year.

2. The Treasurer or his/her designee will mail, email, or fax a final notice of non-payment of dues not later than November 15 to members who have not paid dues by November 1.
 3. A member who has not paid dues by December 1 shall be considered delinquent, and shall be mailed a notice of cancellation of membership by the Treasurer or his/her designee.
 4. Membership may be reinstated upon payment of the current annual dues and any delinquent fees or dues.
 5. A former member who has not paid dues for two (2) or more consecutive years is required to submit a completed application for membership under the provisions of section 4.0(C) or 4.0(D).
 6. Members joining after October 1 shall have their dues prorated to September 30 of that fiscal year on a quarterly basis.
 7. Dues for new members, District Membership or Associate Membership, shall be invoiced by the Treasurer or his/her designee to the new member after membership is approved. Initial membership dues must be paid within 30 days of receipt of invoice or membership in the alliance shall be suspended.
- E. Fees are assessed on an event basis and payable as determined by the voting membership. Registration fees for attendees of the regular meetings may be assessed for each meeting as they are scheduled.

Article 6.0: BUSINESS MEETINGS OF THE ALLIANCE

- A. The Alliance shall hold meetings as determined by the membership or executive committee. It is preferred that, when possible, a regular business meeting will be scheduled during each quarter of the fiscal year.
- B. Special meetings of the Alliance may be called as necessary by the president, two Executive Committee members or five members of the Alliance.
- C. Notice of business meetings and a proposed agenda for that meeting shall be mailed, emailed or faxed to all members of the Alliance no later than (10 days) prior to the date of the meeting. The final agenda for a business meeting shall be posted on the alliance web site at least 72 hours in advance of the meeting. Notice of special called meetings of the Alliance and an agenda shall be given prior to the meeting to all members of the Alliance. This notice may be by telephone, fax, email or overnight letter.
- D. Meetings of the Alliance, in general, are open to all members of the Alliance except as follows:
 1. Members who are delinquent in their dues and/or fees are not permitted to attend meetings of the Alliance unless they have paid the delinquent dues and/or fees or made satisfactory arrangements with the Treasurer.

2. Closed Business Meetings. At the discretion of the President or through a motion and an affirmative vote by the voting members the meeting may be closed to include only specific membership categories but must include voting members.

Article 7.0: QUORUM

A Quorum at a regular or special meeting of the Alliance shall consist of 40 percent of the voting members as defined in Article 4 .0(C)(1).

Article 8.0: VOTING

- A. Each voting member district of the Alliance is entitled to one vote in matters concerning the Alliance.
- B. The vote of any voting member district may be cast by a director, a general manager, or a designated representative of the member District. A representative may be designated in writing by the board president or general manager. The written notice must be presented to the Secretary of the Alliance and remains in effect until October 1 of odd numbered years. The voting representative of a member district must be present to vote at any scheduled or called meeting of the Alliance.
- C. The presiding officer may cast a vote in accordance with Article 8.0(A).
- D. A quorum must be present at any regular or called meeting for a vote to be taken.

Article 9.0: AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws of the Alliance may be amended or repealed in whole or in part upon three fourths affirmative vote of the membership present at a meeting of the Alliance at which a quorum is present. Any amendment to these bylaws or a motion to repeal any part or all of these bylaws must be presented to the entire membership of the Alliance by mail, email, or fax not less than 10 days nor more than 45 days prior to meeting at which the item is on the agenda. Any changes made in the Bylaws of the Alliance shall be mailed, emailed, or faxed to all members within 30 days of adoption.

Article 10.0: POLICY STATEMENTS

The Membership of the Alliance may adopt policy statements as necessary to clarify specific procedural requirements for responsibilities outlined herein. As with amendments to the Bylaws, adoption of a policy statement requires an affirmative vote of three fourths of the membership present at a meeting of the Alliance at which a quorum is present. Any proposed policy statement must be presented to the entire membership of the Alliance by mail, email, or fax not less than 10 days nor more than 45 days prior to meeting at which the item is on the agenda. Any policy statement adopted by the membership as provided herein shall be mailed, emailed, or faxed to all members within 30 days of adoption.

Article 11.0: RULES OF ORDER

- C. Nominations shall be solicited from the membership at large. Nominations may be made from the floor by any district member of the Alliance.
- D. Each officer of the Alliance shall be elected by a majority vote of the members present.
- E. Only districts that are voting members in the Alliance are eligible to vote in any election of the Alliance.

Article 12.3: VACANCY OF OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBERS

- A. The Executive Committee shall appoint a temporary replacement to serve until the next regular meeting of the Alliance at which time a replacement shall be elected by the membership to fill the remainder of the unexpired term in accordance with
- B. A TAGD area representative may designate an alternate voting member for Executive Committee meetings the Area Representative is unable to attend. Such designation shall be made to the President in writing (mail or e-mail) in advance of the meeting.

Article 13.0: STANDING COMMITTEES / BOARDS

Membership on all alliance committees shall normally be limited to district members. For specific projects, after being specifically authorized by the Executive Committee, associate members may serve on an alliance committee.

The Alliance will maintain the following standing committees:

- A. EXECUTIVE---This committee shall be comprised of the elected officers of the Alliance, the immediate past President of the Alliance, one (1) member elected from each TAGD area (map in Appendix B) that is not represented by another member of the Executive Committee. Members of the Executive Committee must be eligible to vote under Article 8.0. This committee shall be responsible for filling vacancies of officers, and other matters as granted by the Alliance including:
 - 1. Having the power and authority to represent the alliance during a session of the State Legislature.
 - 2. Gathering information and making decisions for the Alliance as directed by the membership.

3. Reviewing, adopting, and taking action on the financial affairs of the organization, including budget modifications and expenditures that are within overall budget limitations.
 4. Performing other duties and responsibilities deemed necessary by the membership.
- B. INFORMATION / EDUCATION---This committee shall be responsible for:
1. Gathering information and formulating plans and programs to promote TAGD and its members.
 2. Disseminating information including the Alliance survey and constitution along with a membership list and name of contact person to prospective new districts and newly formed districts.
 3. Maintaining a dialog with public officials to educate them to the benefits of groundwater conservation districts.
 4. Contacting districts that have been declared non-operational by the state auditor under provisions of Section 36.302 Texas Water Code and offer support to the district in an effort to help it regain operational status.
 5. Performing other duties and responsibilities deemed necessary by the membership.
- C. FINANCE / BUDGET---This committee shall be comprised of the current treasurer, the Vice-President, and three (3) members of the Alliance appointed by the President. This committee shall be responsible for:
1. Formulating and presenting an annual budget for the Fiscal Year.
 2. Providing for auditing the financial affairs of the Alliance as needed.
 3. Selecting an outside auditor to perform a financial audit, at the expense of the Alliance, in each odd numbered year at the beginning of the new fiscal year.
- D. LEGISLATIVE---This committee shall be responsible for:
1. Initiating legislative proposals, policies and resolutions for presentation to TAGD's membership.
 2. Informing TAGD's membership of pending legislation of possible interest to groundwater districts.
 3. Developing a position on legislation of possible interest to groundwater districts that is pertinent to the TAGD.
 4. Acting on legislation with approval from the Executive Committee.
- E. NOMINATING---This committee shall consist of the current president and the two immediate past presidents. Members of the Nominating Committee shall be ineligible to run for office in the upcoming election. Nominations shall be solicited from the membership at large.

 2. Ensure that TAGD activities and/or programs operate within the established policy guidelines.
 3. Perform other duties and responsibilities deemed necessary by the membership.
- G. GROUNDWATER PROTECTION---This committee shall work with the representative of the "Texas Groundwater Protection Committee" (TGPC) and assist the representative in carrying out the duties assigned him/her by the TGPC. (House Bill 1458 passed by the 71st Legislature in 1989 established the "Texas Groundwater Protection Committee" and called for a representative to be selected by the Texas Groundwater Conservation Districts Association or successor organization).
- H. RAILROAD COMMISSION REGULATORY REVIEW---The objectives of this committee are to maintain regular contact with the Texas Railroad Commission to discuss and affect groundwater issues.
- I. SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION---The objectives of this committee are to:
1. Provide a representative from TAGD on any federal or state committee relating to agriculture,
 2. Gather information on agriculture activities for distribution to the TAGD membership, and
 3. Provide input into agriculture in areas that may be of interest to groundwater districts.

Article 14.0: CONTRACTS

A majority of the membership present at a regular or special meeting of the Alliance may authorize any officer or member of the Alliance to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Alliance and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Article 15.0: LOANS

No loan may be contracted on behalf of the Alliance, including no evidence of indebtedness may be issued in the Alliance's name, unless authorized by a majority vote of the membership. A vote to authorize issuance of a bank card or credit card in the name of the alliance thereby authorizes the use of that card up to the debt limit approved by the membership. This Article does not apply to limit any provision of a grant either made by or accepted by the Alliance.

Article 16.0: DEPOSITS

All funds of the Alliance shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Alliance in such banks that are accredited and insured by the FDIC.

Article 17.0: GIFTS

The Alliance may accept any contribution or gift for the general purposes or for any specific purpose of the Alliance.

Article 18.0: OPERATING EXPENSES

The operating expenses of the Alliance shall be defrayed by funds from annual dues, fees, special projects, service contracts, contributions or any other monies received by the Alliance.

Article 19.0: INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

The officers and any employees of the Alliance shall not be individually or personally liable for the debts or obligations of the Alliance and shall be indemnified by the Alliance against all financial loss, damage, costs and expenses (including counsel fees) reasonably incurred by or imposed upon them in connection with or resulting from any civil or criminal actions, suit, proceeding, claim or investigation in which they may be involved by reason of any action taken or omitted to be taken by them in good faith as such officer or employee of the Alliance.

- A. Prudent Care. Such indemnification is subject to the condition that a majority of the members shall be of the opinion that a person involved exercised and used the same degree of care and skill as a prudent man would have exercised or used under the circumstances, or that such person took or omitted to take such action in reliance upon advice of counsel for the Alliance or upon information furnished by an officer or employee of the Alliance and accepted in good faith by such person.
- B. Benefit. The indemnification provided herein shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, or administrators of any officer or employee and shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which such party may be entitled by law or under any resolutions adopted by the members.

Article 20.0: FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Alliance shall begin on October 1 of each year and end on September 30 of the following year.

Amended and approved by a two-thirds majority of the membership on June 26, 2012.
